Sheriff Seeker?

Proctor Jones, who has recently run a series of open letters to his "son" in this paper, is expected to announce soon his candidacy for the job of county sheriff. He recently spoke at Half Moon Bay on proposed county changes.

Supervisors Boost County Officials' Yearly Pay Rate

San Mateo county officials this week enjoyed a substantial raise, which is to go into effect January 1, 1951.

Biggest pay boost came for the district attorney, who is now making $7,200 a year, and during the next term will get $11,000 a year.

The boosts were passed by the board of supervisors at a special session Friday.

Other raises include: county clerk from $6,500 to $8,000; sheriff, from $6,500 to $8,000; county engineer, from $6,500 to $8,500; county assessor, from $6,500 to $7.200.

Increases from $6,500 to $7,200 are also coming for the treasurer, controller, tax collector and county coroner - public administrator. Justices of the peace in class "A" courts will receive $8,000 as compared with the present scale of $6,000 a year.

Under a proposed amendment to the county charter, the board of supervisors would not have this power of raising or cutting wages at will. The charter would provide that all such action must first be approved by the people via the county executive officer.

A petition to put the proposal on the ballot is now being circulated throughout the county. Some 10,000 signatures are needed to put the amendment on the June 6 primary ballot for consideration of the county votes.

In addition, the proposed change would provide that supervisors be elected by districts rather than the county at large.

City Adm. Officer Appointment Put Off Until July

Daly City will not have a city administrative officer until July, 1950, the city council announced this week.

The appointment will be delayed, as the council must advertise the position and seek candidates to fill the post, Mayor Paul Green said.

However, the applications filed for the city manager also will be considered, and each of these applicants will be notified of the change. (Last month the city council abolished the position of city manager in favor of city administrative officer).

Deadline for applicants will be May 1. The position will be filled before July 1, Mayor Green said.

At the present time the city has some 70 applications for city manager, among which is only one from an unidentified local man.

Under the ordinance passed last month, the city administrator will act as coordinator of city government functions. However, he will have no direct power, and will be under the control of the council.

The officer is to be appointed by the council and will hold office only as long as the council desires. The council also will set the salary, which is expected to be between $400 and $600 a month.

CITY COUNCIL ACTION

Lowell Street Out For Theatre Use; Starlite Chain Must Make Next Move

Lowering the boom on the Starlite Theatre chain, the city council Monday night denied the organization the right to use Lowell street as an exit to their drive-in theatre.

This decision followed a stormy session between councilmen and property owners of the Concordia land tract.

Residents in the north east area of Daly City stated that they are against the theatre using Lowell and Guttenberg streets as additional traffic would constitute a menace to residents.

Evidently agreeing in part with this opinion, the council said they will not allow the theatre to cut through Edgemar to use Lowell. However, Mayor Paul Green said he did not believe the city had any legal authority to prevent the chain from using Guttenberg st., as this is an already dedicated thoroughfare.

Some property owners disagreed with the mayor, claiming that the city did have that right. This must be decided at some future meeting.

Meanwhile, the whole issue now seems to be in the hands of the Starlite theatre, and the Crocker estate that leased the land for the theatre.

With Lowell street at least temporarily blocked as an exit, the theatre will either have to use Guttenberg for both exit and entrance, or cut through another street, to Allison or Concordia, both of which are in San Francisco and north east of the Concordia tract.

Indications that this might be done were heard from Crocker estate representatives this week who were drawing up tentative plans for developing their property and putting in new roads.

However, the question was far from settled. The outdoor theatre is to be completed by the spring of this year, and it is evident they must make some move to insure themselves an exit and entrance.

Further complicating the matter was the petition presented to the council Monday night and signed by some 20 residents along Guttenberg street. They objected to the theatre using that street, and A. L. Winder, 99 Bellevue, who circulated the petition, said that most of the signatures were from people in San Francisco.

The mayor examined the petition and returned it to Winder for more signatures.

Still another facet of the issue is that an unidentified local builder objected to the theatre using streets in the Concordia area. He stated that he has plans for extensive building and that the theatre might cut down the desirability of putting up homes.

Out of all this confusion two things were apparent:

1. The 35 to 40 families now

Pictures! Pictures! The "Record" Wants To Print Them

Nothing would please us more than to print a picture on this page of YOU, your organization members, or of any activity of interest to the greater Daly City area.

However, we must have the pictures before we can print same.

Why not bring them to the Daly City Record office, 3317 San Jose avenue. We will look them over and determine whether they are of general interest enough to warrant publishing.

We want to publish pictures about you, and that will interest you and your friends.

City Employes Want 5 Day Week

City employes who are now working five and one-half or six days a week, this week petitioned the city council for a five day work week.

Mayor Paul Green said the city council had taken the request under consideration and would give an answer "very soon."

Should the shorter work week go through, it would not become effective until July 1, the mayor indicated.

Provision would be made also to keep the water department open Saturday morning, and there would be no cut in police protection.

Representing the employes in their request at the Monday night caucus meeting of the council were A. J. Bodien, Chief W. W. Sunderland and Dave Cafferetta.

By working with skeleton crews on holidays and Saturdays, it would be possible to give the employes the shorter week, without costing the city "too much more" in paychecks, reports show.

Council To Open Concordia Bids Tuesday Night

Taking a holiday February 13, city councilmen will not hold the regular council meeting until February 14.

At that time the principal point of business will be opening bids on the proposed Concordia assessment district. It is expected the bids will be around $110,000 for putting in streets, sidewalks, pavement and other improve-

GARDEN VILLAGE SCHOOL DEDICATION CEREMONIES

Last Sunday, various dignitaries from Daly City, Broadmoor, Garden Village and Westlake met in front of the new Garden Village school to formally dedicate the new $115,000, 7 room structure. However, the school won't be open until later this month. When pupils in kindergarten through the fifth grade start to school in the modern building, Daly City will almost be off "swing shift" education. This is a view of the school looking southwest from Garden Village.

Garden Village School To Open About February 20

Dedicated Sunday, the new $115,000 Garden Village school will be opened on or about February 20, thus taking Daly City almost off "swing shift" education.

James Snell, school superintendent, said that when the first unit is opened, pupils in kindergarten through the fifth grade in Broadmoor and Westlake, now attending Jefferson elementary, will go to the new school.

This will take Jefferson off the double session, and leave only three classes at Crocker rotating mornings and afternoons.

"However, by this fall, the problem will be with us again, only much worse than now," Snell commented.

He asserted the only way he knew of solving the "swing shift" education was through construction of six new schools as described in last week's "Record."

Voters sometime this spring will be asked to approve a bond issue to build the new schools, which will include three in the Westlake area, one in Garden Village, and two in Colma.

Returning to the Sunday dedication ceremonies, The Rev. John A. Glasse of the Broadmoor Presbyterian church delivered the invocation.

A color guard from the Broadmoor posts of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars raised the National Anthem. Mrs. Memory Gomez conducted the musical portion of the program.

Snell served as master of ceremonies and presented the members of the school board, Andrew Van der Werff, Michael Callan and

POLITICOS PREPARE

San Mateo County Voters To Pick Twenty-One Officers At Polls November 7

Politically, things were shaping up in San Mateo county this week, to indicate one of the hottest battles in many a year for various public offices.

In four more weeks, the candidates will have a 20-day filing period to notify the 100,000 county voters they intend to run. The primary election will be held June 6, and the general election, November 7.

Of great interest to local voters is the proposed amendment to the county charter which will restore election of supervisors by district rather than at large, and the elective post of county executive. Under present provisions, in January, 1951, the county executive post will be abolished in favor of a county manager appointed by the supervisors.

Fred Peterson is present executive and has held that position since 1938. Earlier, he announced he will be a candidate for supervisor.

Following are the posts to be filled, and the persons who to date have indicated they will seek re-election, or will the job for the first time:

Sheriff — James J. McGrath (incumbant); Bob Spiller and

WHAT ORGANIZATION IS PLANNING TO DEVELOP LAND EAST OF DALY CITY?

The first three persons to phone in, or bring in the right answer to this question will be given a FREE three-month subscription to the "Daly City Record" for themselves OR a friend.

If you have the answer, phone JUniper 7-4321, or come to the "Record" office, 3317 San Jose avenue.

This is the first of a series of such contests, which will appear each week in the "Record."

Here is an opportunity to win three months' reading enjoyment by merely answering a question. There are no other rules, no strings attached. However, each week's winners may not enter again, until a period of three month has elapsed.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

(Still another new feature begins in your Daly City Record this week. Each week various citizens in Daly City, from all walks of life will be asked to give their views on questions of interest. It is hoped this, and subsequent articles, will "inspire" readers to send in letters with their comments o nthe question of the week.)

This week, the editor asked the following people the question:

"If you were mayor of Daly City for a day, what would you do to improve this community?"

Herewith are the answers:

Mrs. Elmer Hanley, 43 Woodrow street (clerk) — I believe the best thing Daly City could do would be to change its name back to Vista Grande. This is not only a beautiful name for a city, but also implies the truth that Daly City does, indeed, have a grand view. Too many people in this community are ashamed of the name Daly City, and I'm sure would prefer a change.

C. S. Brobeck, 349 Niantic (retired army man) — What we need is a paid fire department. There should be at least one company on duty during the day and night. The volunteers are doing a good job, but in a city this size, volunteer service isn't enough.

Mrs. Barbara Albee, 90 Tallwood drive (housewife) — I believe the city should take immediate steps to finish off the dead end streets. At the present time, when we have a rain, mud and silt is washed from the end of the uncompleted streets. It's high time something was done to rectify this situation.

Fred Davis, 201 Citrus — I believe we should have more parks and playgrounds in this community. The present administration is doing much, but even more should be done.

Mrs. George Wright, Rt. 1, Box

65 Mile Wind Hits Daly City

Eyeing the week-end weather with some trepidation are officials of a Colma box factory who lost a small warehouse in last Saturday's 65-mile winds.

While rain and wind whipped the Daly City area, a large gust suddenly came in from the north and levelled the warehouse at 230 Washington street. However, officials report the damage wasn't too great, as the warehouse was made of sheet metal, and could be repaired.

This was the only damage reported here during the week-end storm.

Just for the record, from 4 p.m. Saturday to 8 a.m. Monday morning, two inches of rain fell in Daly City. The season rain total is 13.06 as compared to 6.39 inches one year ago.

But it looks at long last there will be a chance for housewives to put their laundry out on the lines again. Weathermen predict fog and sunshine for Daly City Saturday and Sunday.

Burglar Makes $400 Haul

Breaking into the isolated Colma ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. John Castagnetto Friday afternoon, an unidentified burglar emptied a dresser drawer of $400 in loot.

Police report the thief entered the house, Rt. 1, Box 358, Colma, between 2 p.m. and 4 p.m., via breaking the glass in the front door window.

Mrs. Ralph T. Hanna, Millbrae, this week accepted the gavel from Mrs. Stella Jensen, Colma, retiring chairman of the Federation of Girl Scout Councils of Northern San Mateo County. Observing the ceremony are, left to right, back row, Mesdames Allen Tamblin, San Bruno; E. S. Heagney, Daly City; Edward Gould, executive director; Frank Burke, Millbrae. Front row, Mesdames Floyd Huff, Millbrae; Stella Jensen, Colma; Ralph T. Hanna, Millbrae; L. D. Clements, South San Francisco.

3,600-Acre Crocker Development Enters Tentative Planning Stage

Following a long post-war "slumber," the Crocker estate this week indicated that plans may now be underway for development of the 3,600 acres east of Daly City.

As reported in the "Record" last week, William Morton, Crocker estate official, told Mayor Green that his concern was studying the possibility of putting through several roads. At the present time only Crocker avenue ties in the vast area with Daly City.

Now, A. J. Bodien, works superintendent, reports that last Thursday, he, Supervisor Tom Hickey, and several members of the planning commission met with Morton to discuss development of a park and roads in the Crocker holdings.

After making a survey of the area, the officials agreed on the following tentative, and Bodien stressed they are definitely tentative, plans:

1. Development of a park of undetermined size, near a small lake, just off the road that leads through the area to the new TV station. This park would be in a natural valley full of trees and beautiful sites.

2. A three-mile or longer road running from Colma, near Market street, through the Crocker estate (following the Colma creek valley) to Brisbane.

3. Extension of the present road which leads to the TV station to South San Francisco. This "TV" road branches off of Crocker avenue in Daly City.

How the park and streets would be financed, when, and if they will be dedicated, is all a matter of speculation.

Nor did the Crocker officials indicate exactly when and how they planned to develop the area east of Daly City. However, it would appear that eventually any homes built in the area would be annexed to Daly City.

Bodien said further conferences between county, city, and Crocker officials will be held in the near future.

An Automatic Dryer Goes Wrong

Popping an item into her oven Saturday, Mrs. S. J. Tassano, 148 Mateo avenue, promptly forgot she had something "cooking."

Only a few minutes later, at 7:20 p.m., did she remember. Rushing to the kitchen, a whiff of smoke punctured her fears.

But unlike some "cooks," Mrs. Tassano needed help. She put in an emergency call to the police station.

Game to pull anyone's "chesnuts out of the fire," officers arrived, walked to the oven, jerked open the door, and yanked out a smouldering pair of Mrs. Tassano's son's pajamas.

She'd put them in the oven to dry.

Police reports fail to note whether or not young Tassano slept in pajamas or a la natural that night.

Workers Volunteer For Daly City Red Cross Drive

Scores of volunteer workers were making plans this week for the Red Cross fund raising drive in Daly City which begins next month.

The workers were recruited by Mrs. Ethel Harris, residential drive chairman.

"If the response to the campaign is as successful as the call for volunteer workers, it can not help but be a success," Mrs. Harris noted.

Joe Lewkowitz, local campaign

Election Fog Clears -- Several Candidates To Run

Slowly the fog was lifting from the coming political battleground for seats on the city council April 11.

On one side was Hugh H. Smith Jr., who announced today he will probably run for the council. Besides him were Mel Battye, incumbent councilman, and another unidentified candidate.

Although the other side still was quiet, all indications were that incumbents Paul Green and A. J. Gaggero will be up for re-election. Reliable sources at city hall report that at Tuesday's council meeting Gaggero and Green may announce their plans.

It also is possible that another unidentified candidate will take "arms" with Green and Gaggero in the coming political contest.

Further complicating the election picture, is a report that neither of the two aforesaid unidentified candidates will take a stand on either side, but will run independent of both elements.

Candidates have from February 10 to noon March 2 to file their papers at the city clerk's office.

Bruno Street Hog Trucks Remain

Although Mayor Paul Green has not yet heard from officials of the Consolidated Hog Co., he indicated today that they will have to stop parking trucks in the Bruno street area.

As reported in the "Record" last week, residents object to the trucks as they allege the vehicles constitute a health and safety menace to the community.

"I haven't seen Martini, the company official, but if he doesn't contact me pretty soon, I'll have to write him a letter informing him of the city's action on the matter," Mayor Green said.

According to the mayor, the company was supposed to have moved out of the garage January 1.

However, by way of apology to Fred Collins, county health inspector, the garage is not a health menace as reported in the "Record" last week. Collins says the owners have put in rodent control and as far as he can determine it is clean.

It looks like the next move (at least if quick action is desired) must come from the residents in the area, who report they will have representatives at the city council meeting Tuesday night.

Nursery Man Says Drink Drove Him To $76 Robbery

Less than 48 hours after he'd allegedly robbed a local Shell station of $76.80 Saturday, Harold Wayne Davis, 1845 Mission, returned to the establishment to give himself up.

The California Seed Nursery employee said he really hadn't meant to rob the station. He told police that he had gotten drunk and "crazily pulled off the robbery," police reports indicate.

Later his conscience got the best of him, and he returned to the station, offering to pay back the stolen money, police said.

William Brennan, owner of the station refused to press charges. Upon the advice of the district attorney Chief W. W. Sunderland swore out a complaint against Davis, charging him with robbery.

Davis is out on $50 bail, and will appear before Judge W. J. Sweeney Friday, February 10.

Police reconstructed the robbery of the 2089 Junipero Serra station as follows:

Saturday at 9:10 p.m. Davis allegedly waited until the attendant, Manuel Aliphat, was alone in the station. Then, slipping into the office behind Aliphat, Davis assertedly pulled a 5-inch knife and barked:

"This is a stickup."

Not wishing to be "stuck," Aliphat backed against the wall and allegedly watched Davis empty the cash register. Still holding the large pocket knife, Davis assertedly asked Aliphat where the safe was kept. Only after the attendant had assured him that there was no safe, did Davis run out of the station and disappear down Parkview.

Chief Sunderland reports that Davis has been working in Daly City for the past two years, and as far as he knows, the nursery man has no criminal record here.

School To Open

Mrs. Helen Cheatham. The school architect, Mario Ciamoi, and Mayor Paul Green were also presented.

Formal presentation of the school to the citizens of Broadmoor and Garden Village was made to Claude Hanrahan and George W. Irvine, representing the Broadmoor and Garden Village residents, respectively. Irvine, in responding to the presentation accepted the school in trust for the children of the community it will serve.

Irvine stated: "It is a very real pleasure to accept this new building and to dedicate to the development of the finest in education for our children. The rapid growth of our community makes it imperative that additional schools be built in the near future and the support of all citizens of the school district's building program is essential."

Father Anthony Morrissey of the Holy Angels Church of Colma delivered the benediction.

Following the ceremony the building was open to inspection with the Broadmoor Cub Pack acting as guides. Many favorable comments on the building were received particularly on the excellent selection of colors in the classrooms. One of the features is the use of colored chalkboards in shades which carry out the color scheme.

However, Lewkowitz stressed the need for additional workers and advised anyone willing to help to contact either Mrs. Harris, 239 Peoria street, DElaware 3-5549, or himself at the Hancock Service station, San Jose and Mission.

living in the Concordia tract are set against the theatre using streets in the area for exits and entrances. (Not so clear is whether or not their objections would subside if the theatre would offer to pay a good part of the cost of the $110,000 project now going on to pave streets and put in sewers in the area.)

2. The theatre will have to find some means on an exit and entrance, and if checked on the Daly City side will have to head north-east with new streets to connect on to San Francisco. However, it appears that no business goes ahead with an investment as large as putting in an outdoor theatre without first assuring itself of a method of entrance and exit.

445, Colma (housewife) — I can't think of anything, off hand, that should be done in Daly City. The present administration is doing a pretty good job.

Chester Copple, 26 Hillside (Mark Hopkins hotel employe)—I realize the police are doing a good job, but something ought to be done to slow down the speeders on Hillside boulevard. And that's especially true of trucks. I've seen them rip down there at 50 miles an hour or better. Why not more police protection?

Sydney Silver, 89 Bepler (civil engineer) — I haven't much to say, but speaking for my wife she wishes the administration would bring better and more fog to Daly City. She was born and raised in the desert, and she can't stand the heat.

Mrs. Daisy Cole, 19 Woodrow street (housewife) — I think they should do something about cleaning up the taverns. There are all together too many of them in Daly City.

August Smith, 37 Vendome (retired mechanic) — I could say a lot, but what I really object to is my high water rate. I'd do something about cutting down on the water rates. Somebody's making some money here, but it isn't me.

Also, it is expected that the council will appropriate funds for the purchase of necessary property for the proposed new parks in the community.

Other items, all of which are expected to be routine, were not available at press time.

Note: Although there is no confirmation of this report, many local politicos expect that Mayor Paul Green and A. J. Gaggero will announce that they will be candidates for re-election when the council meets Tuesday. A full story on this can be found elsewhere in the Record.

Safeway Strike Enters Fifth Week

Now going into its fifth week, the strike against Safeway stores in Daly City and San Francisco appeared far from settled today.

The strike started January 16, when Local 648 of the AFL Grocery Clerks demanded that Safeway grant a collective bargaining contract for managers. Claiming that managers can not be unionized and still represent the company, Safeway refused to meet the clerks' demand.

Moving down into the Peninsula this week, the clerks asked customers in San Mateo county to boycott the 14 local branches of Safeway stores. The union passed around pamphlets, and said they would continue to do so until the strike was settled.

AROUND THE VILLAGES

with Verna Duste

I suppose you lovely people realize now that we started something with this changing from one paper to another — of course, we can't mention any names, really we caen't!

Seriously, tho, the old adage about it's being "a great life if you don't etc. etc" is usually true, we've found. However, much as we don't claim to be a sooper-dooper citizen extraordinaire or anything of the sort, we find ourselves (at this particular time of year) becoming just a shade griped at the following categories of people:

Broad Moors who gripe about the street signs, lack of bus service(?) and other things, and then never come to Board meetings, either in person or by letter.

Broad Moors who, practically singlehanded, find it in their hearts to deny the children of their neighborhood a fitting place to play—not, mind you, the school-agers, who have their own schoolyard (or will have, as soon as it is hard-surfaced) but the pre-schoolers, from 0 to 5, who have nowhere to play but their back yards and the streets.

Besides being the ideal place for the small children to play, it has only one exit and entrance, thus making it a secure place for them, from a supervision standpoint. A nice place for you mothers, too, to bring your mending or whatnot, and spend an afternoon, while your children indulge in the best activity there is for the small fry—playing with other children.

This lovely Kiddie Utopia of which I speak is the proposed playground on MacArthur, on which your Association Board of Directors has already spent some $100-odd dollars of your money, and which Mr. Henry Doelger is leasing to you at the fantastic sum of $1 per year.

It may very well be that the property owners living on MacArthur drive who are objecting very strenuously to the installation of the playground (and without whose approval the playground cannot go into operation) have some very good and valid reason, and, in the event they have, let them come forth and explain it. A good deal of enmity is being aroused in Broadmoor Village about this situation, and not a few of the small group that seems to do the most "accomplishing" around the village are beginning to feel "oh—what's the use-ish" about the whole thing — and whose to blame them?? From the hard-working collector who secured donations from every single merchant and doctor in the Broadmoor Shopping Center to the director, who devoted many, many evenings to the drawing up of the plans of the playground, a general feeling of futility prevails.

So what?? you say?? So this is what!! In May, there will be three vacancies on the board of directors. Citizens of Broadmoor who are willing to look ahead, work, plan, take a lot of criticism (due and undue!) are needed to fill those posts.

So you think you can do a better job than the present board members?? Fine—we all earnestly hope you can. After all, that is how the boards, present and future, are composed — of those who feel they can do as well, if not better, than their predecessors.

In May there will be a general meeting, at which these officers will be elected. Last May the turnout was very good — just think, there were almost 200 people there, out of 1800 who were eligible to attend!! Some turnout!! But, that's America for you — the preponderance of those who don't attend meetings don't vote, either except possibly for President, and then only because the guy next door is voting for the other candidate.

Well — there it is, in your laps. Too heavy for you?? Start lessening the load, then, by making it your responsibility. The second Thursday in every month the meetings of the board of directors are held in the Broadmoor Community Center — see you there?? Probably not, but we can dream, can't we?? Selah!!

All Incumbents In Colma Govt. To Run Again

Highlight of the Wednesday meeting of the Colma city council was the announcement that five incumbent city officials will seek re-election April 11.

Earl Taylor and John Price, both of whom have served one term on the city council, said they will seek to retain their council seats.

Henry Kempf, treasurer, and E. A. Weisenburger, city clerk, both of whom have been in city government since Colma was incorporated in 1924, said they will again run for re-election.

Weisenburger reports that to date he has not heard of anyone in Colma who will run aginst him or the four other officials.

Mayor Paul Barsi and Councilmen John Newton and Bartley Flynn will not be up for re-election until 1952.

Another item of interest at the meeting was the request by an A. Conti for a building permit to build a drive-in theater adjacent to the Woodlawn cemetery between Highway No. 1 and Junipero Serra boulevard.

The council has taken the request under consideration. Weisenburger reports that further details as to the cost and specifications for the theater are not yet available.

There is another drive-in theater at Colma, the El Rancho, between El Camino Real and Skyline boulevard.

Come As You Are To Legion Dance

This is just by way of a reminder to all local residents who hate to dress for a dance.

Saturday, February 25, the Broadmoor American Legion Post No. 824 will hold a "Hard Times" dance at Colombo Hall, on San Pedro road in Colma.

No one will be required to dress up for the affair, in fact, it is hoped most dancers will appear in "any old thing" they happen to be wearing Saturday.

Music for the dance will be furnished by Paul Law's orchestra, and some lucky dancer will go home with a free television set.

Everyone is invited and tickets may be obtained either at the door or from any Broadmoor Legion members.

Broadmoor, Westlake Connecting Street Plan Opposed By State

After three months of discussion, it appeared unlikely today that any street connecting Broadmoor and Westlake will be built in the near future.

Friday, Ed Parsons, state school house planning official, rejected the county proposal to run a street from 87th to Highway No. 1, just a few feet west of the new Garden Village school.

This plan was drawn up by the county after it was found allegedly undesirable, from a matter of cost and work, to extend White street, or to put in another road 300 feet west of White street.

The aforesaid are the only possible routes to connect Broadmoor and Westlake at the present time.

Hence, with the state rejecting one route, and the county the other, there seemed to be the necessity of a compromise or no street at all.

County planning board officials, city officers, and school board trustees were scheduled to meet sometime within the near future to talk over the problem.

Parsons rejected the county route, as the road would have run close to the school and proven a "distraction" for students in school. He also said he was not satisfied with a street, regardless of an overpass, that cut so close to school playgrounds.

On the other hand, to extend White street would mean cutting through property proposed for use in the upper division of the Garden Village school. James Snell, school superintendent, said that if White street was run through in a straight line from 87th to Highway No. 1, the district would probably have to curb plans for a playground for the upper Garden Village school.

Another plan would call for "snaking" White street between the new Garden Village school and the proposed school, so as not to interfere with land to be used for playgrounds. However, A. J. Bodien, speaking unofficially for the county planning board, said he believes the expense of such a plan would not warrant the route.

Still another question concerning the street presented itself this week. Do the people in the concerned areas want a connecting road near the school property?

Mike Callan, school board trustee, reported that "many mothers" in the Broadmoor area were opposed to any street cutting through, or near school property. He asserted that the route proposed by the county planning board would connect with Skyline boulevard, and in time be a booming thoroughfare.

Taking the other side of the question, Bodien asserted that some street to connect the two areas was a necessity.

At the present time, Bodien said, the only method of driving between Broadmoor and Westlake is via Junipero Serra boulevard. He said a through street was needed not only for convenience, but for better police and fire protection.

Lake Merced VFW To Elect Officers

Election of officers will be held March 2 when the VFW Lake Merced Post No. 9921 meets at the Broadmoor Community center.

At the group's last meeting, names were submitted for the various elective posts.

Now, the post is working on plans for an extensive membership drive to acquaint the residents of broadmoor with the activities of the VFW.

The Broadmoor post also takes an active part in all community affairs, and is glad to help any worthy group whenever possible, an official said.

Why not come to the next meeting? It will be held Thursday, February 16, at the Broadmoor Community center beginning at 8 p.m.

Broadmoor Church Wants Voices For Easter Choir

Sermon topic of the Broadmoor Community Presbyterian church this week will be: "Profitable Obsessions."

The sermon will be delivered at the church, 87th street off Junipero Serra, at 11:15 a.m. This week's topic is to be based on the movie of almost the same name that was shown at the church February 12.

Meanwhile, The Rev. John Glasse this week called on all singers and would be singers in the Broadmoor area to assist in the adult Easter choir.

"If you canot become a permanent member of the choir, give us your help and give yourself the joy that will result from lending your voice for the enrichment of Easter music," Rev. Glasse said.

Those interested are asked to contact the music director, Memory Gomez, at DElaware 3-3476 or Rev. Glasse at JUniper 7-8755.

Rehearsals are at 7:30 each Thursday evening.

Baptist Mission Opens In Colma-Daly City Area

Another new church this month opened its doors in the Colma-Daly City area.

The Colma Baptist Mission, the only Baptist church in this community, is now located at the Colma community center, Dunk street.

Services are conducted every Sunday at 11 p.m. and at 7:30 p.m. There are Sunday school classes, beginning at 10 p.m.

An able young pastor is now directing the new Baptist Mission. He is The Rev. Calvin Rains.

A graduate of the Oklahoma Baptist University, Rev. Rains is now doing graduate work at the Golden Gate Theological Seminary in Berkeley.

He is a native of California, and has been a pastor for the past two years.

During the week, Rev. Rains will visit the Daly City - Colma area to speak with Baptists at their respective homes.

Property Owners Meet Tonight For Erosion Discussion

Chief topic of discussion at the meeting of the Broadmoor Property Owners Association tonight, February 9, is expected to be the erosion problem.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the Broadmoor Community center, and all interested property owners are asked to be present.

Louis Manis, erosion chairman for the association, said he expects "a good many people" to be present to discuss their personal losses in the recent rains. Manis said he would try to have some concrete information from M. A. Grant, county engineer, as to what the county proposes to do in the area.

Earlier reports indicate that Henry Stoneson, builder of Broadmoor, is putting up retaining walls and planting grass in the hills behind the Village to prevent any further trouble.

However, Manis indicated that the people desire more than what Stoneson has done, especially in personal claims for damage.

Other items on tonight's agenda were not available at press time. A full report of the meeting will be found in next week's "Record."

Lutheran Church Sunday Topic

This Sunday the pastor of Lutheran Church of Broadmoor will speak on the gospel lesson for the day, "The Parable of the Sower."

The sermon will have as its theme the question, "In What Kind of Ground Have You Been Sown?" The unchurched public is especially invited to this and each service held Sundays at 11 a.m. at Broadmoor Recreation Center, White street just off 87th.

Sunday school is held each week at 9:45 a.m. here for all children from 3-13. Any questions will be cheerfully answered by the pastor, Rev. Max Zschiegner. Please call SEabright 1-1523.

Bike Bucks Boy Against Car

A 4½-year-old Broadmoor boy suffered minor injuries when Sunday afternoon he was pinned against a car by another young boy riding a bicycle.

Injured was Kenneth Dean, 708 Washington street. He suffered contusions of his forehead and abrasions of his finger and left leg, Junipero Serra hospital authorities report.

According to an unidentified witness, Ronald Wood, 9, 1691 Sweetwood, lost control of his bike and pushed young Dean against a parked automobile. The accident occurred at 12:28 p.m. outside of the Dean home.

Mrs. Berg Heads Edgewood Board

Elected chairman of the Edgewood Terrace Civic Association board of directors Tuesday night was Mrs. Carl Berg, 185 Hillside boulevard.

Following the election, the board turned to a letter to be sent to all members and prospective members of the civic organization. Through the letter, the board hopes to point out the aims and purposes of the association.

Also, it was decided at a very near day to open a membership drive to recruit new members for the association.

For this purpose, and to consider the letter of intentions, the board will meet again February 14.

SON
The Father of His Country
Meet George!
George wasn't present the night his illustrious namesake crossed the Delaware. Nor did he arrive in time to "winter" with his countrymen at Valley Forge. As a matter of fact, it was one hundred sixty-six years after Cornwallis surrendered that George became an American citizen—by birth.
George is old enough now to carry a flag. And he's old enough to carry in his heart the principles for which that flag stands.
One of those principles is Religious Liberty . . . the right of every American to worship and serve God in his own way.
George goes to Sunday School. That's part of carrying the flag.
For the sacred rights and privileges which the Father of His Country helped us to win, the son of his country must learn to love and to defend.
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

March Of Dimes Folk Dance Here This Saturday Night; All Invited

Those who like their dancing folk style are invited to attend the Calico Clickers March of Dimes dance this Saturday, February 11.

There will be no admission charge to the dance. Nor will tickets be required. However, those passing through the open front door of Castle Hall, 7339 Mission, will be asked to make a contribution to the March of Dimes. Previous contributions don't count, an official said.

Time of the affair is set for 8:15 p.m. Everyone in the greater Daly City area is invited to attend, and especially those interested in folk dancing.

The Clickers are the first folk dancing club to be established in Daly City, and this is the first of many such dances they are planning.

Music for the event will be furnished by the best bands in the land, via phonograph. Also, there will be expert callers to put the dancers through their paces.

Meanwhile, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Thomson, expert dancers, visited the Clickers last Thursday night to teach them the famous square dances.

Lutheran Church To Observe Boy Scout Week Sunday

By The Rev. R. G. Konzelman

National Boy Scout Sunday will be observed at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior this Sunday, February 12.

Both the Church's Scout troop No. 82 and the Cub Pack No. 82 will attend the 11 a.m. worship service en masse. All members of these organizations will bring their parents to the service.

The sermon for the occasion, entitled "How to be Great," will be preached by the pastor of the church, Rev. Robert G. Konzelman, B.D.

Other activities of the day include Sunday school for all ages at 9:45 a.m. under the supervision of Superintendent Mrs. Clarence Brog, for the beginners department, and Superintendent Enfrid Benson for the main school. Pastor Konzelman will conduct the opening exercises.

At 7:30 in the evening there will be an open forum on the subject: "Can Man Please God?" This is the third in the current series of Sunday evening forums. The public is invited to share in this stimulating presentation and discussion. The church is located on Junipero Serra boulevard at Garfield.

Tuesday evening the Cub Pack will meet at the church at 7:30 and on Thursday evening at 7:30. Scout Troop No. 82 will meet at 7:30. Both organizations are under the leadership of Stephen Gaal of 247 Ralston street.

Under the leadership of Lyle Vesey of 41 Muirwood drive, a committee of lay visitors, representing the Lutheran Church of Our Savior (Junipero Serra and Garfield—just across the San Mateo line in San Francisco) began an extensive evangelistic program, during the past week.

The plan, part of a program shared by all National Lutheran Council churches, and developed nationally by the Lutheran Commission on Evangelism, is to train members of the church, to witness for Christ to the world. Its method is not fanatical, but rather is a sincere endeavor on the part of the laymen of the church to tell others who are unchurched, what the Lord and His church mean in their lives. The goal is to win the unchurched of the community for the cause of Christ.

Each evening of the week, the workers met at the church for a brief devotional before going out into the homes of the community, and reported back to the church for refreshments and fellowship following their calls. Mr. Vesey, chairman of the church's evangelism committe and officer on the church council, stated that this is not a one-week program, but the begining of an ongoing program, through which the Lutheran Church hopes to train 300,000 such lay witnesses for Christ. The effort begun in the eastern part of the country last fall has reportedly met with great success.

The program's theme and charge is the Command of Christ: "Ye shall be my witnesses," and as closely as possible the pattern laid down for the seventy sent out by Christ to bear witness, is being followed. It is believed that this increased concern for the church's missionary obligation will help to answer many of the perplexing questions seeking for an answer in our day and lead the church to a new influence in the world, as more men, women and children are brought into the saving influence of the church placed under the empowering and saving influence of the Word of God.

Whist Party Date Changed To Feb. 13

As usual, the party will be held in the Daly City Masonic Hall, 17 Hillcrest drive. Time for the event is 8:30 p.m.

The public is invited to attend.

The two chairmen for the affair will be Mesdames Eleanor Cameron and Ann Cerf.

Gen. Pershing PTA Executives Look At Founders' Day

By Mrs. E. K. Whinnen

Here are some interesting highlights on the salvage drive.

In three and a half months of the latter part of 1949, 7,033—think of it — 7,033 garments were cleaned, sterilized, and given to needy people, brought to the attention of the salvage company, through P.T.A.'s and other certified organizations.

The need has risen the startling amount of 263 per cent over last year, and last year was 75 per cent over the year before. So it is easy to see the good that comes from these P.T.A. salvage drives besides the working money put into P.T.A. treasuries from these discarded rags and clothing.

Here is a sample of the money return to P.T.A.'s. In the year 1949-50 (school year) $7,504.20 was paid out for the rags. The 7,033 garments mentioned above also was part of the 1949-50 collections. The average money return for the state's 168 P.T.A.s was $45.30 per unit.

Since the children collect the bags, funny things are bound to happen. Here is one. A mother had filled two bags, one with salvage for the drive, and a shopping bag with sewing materials for her sewing club. The child picked up a bag and hied himself off to school. Mother got herself ready and picked up a bag too, and lo! it was full of salvage. She hurried to the school, explained the situation to the salvage collector and he went through ten big collection bags, before he found it.

Herman Kohlbrenner was given a courtesy membership card for his help with the salvage drive. The membership card carries full voting privileges. Mr. Kohlbrenner donated a box of butterballs again this year for the children collecting the bags.

The 21-year history of General Pershing P.T.A. has been written up in narrative form by Mrs. E. K. Whinnen, and will be presented at the Founders' Day meeting. Miss Pansy Jewett Abbot has graciously agreed to be narrator.

It was also decided to display the handicraft exhibited at the 17th district, C.C.P.T., meeting in Brisbane, and any more that any member wishes to bring to the Founders' Day meeting. All members are invited to bring their handiwork to the meeting and display it for the pleasure of those attending.

An amendment to the by-laws was approved for the selection of Life Membership recipients. Names would be submitted by both the members at the general meeting and the membership chairman, by ballot. A special board meeting in conjunction with the life members would then be called, in January, to vote on the member or members to be so honored. The pin and emblem chairman and Life Membership chairman will open the ballots.

It is felt this amendment will eliminate any injustice that might inadvertantly slip in.

The meeting was held at Mrs. Herman Kohlbrenner's home, 263 Evergreen.

February 12 — Nicholas Jacobs, 330 Woodrow street; Harold Frank, 1772 Sweetwood drive; Billy Albera, 94 Theta.

NEWS OF YOUR NEIGHBORS

Helen Rick, manager of the Daly City Upholstery Co., 6373 Mission street, has an albino dog in her shop that is causing some comment around the community. The three-month-old Pekinese stands about one-half inch off the floor and is no larger than an animated ball of white yarn. His name is "Pinky," derived from his pink eyes that Mrs. Rick claims shine at night. But from other observations it's hard to see how the long-haired pooch can push aside his forelock long enough to find his way around the shop. Why not come in and see this strange ball of fluff?

If you were to pick out one of the "best buys" in your home today, you probably would choose your faithful food-saving, money-saving refrigerator. You keep it stuffed full of snacks of food and, like a saving soul, it keeps meal left-overs savory and fresh for choice nibbling or another meal. On the average, the electricity for this food-saving refrigeration costs you only about 2 cents a day.

Summer Fruits and Berries are flavor-fresh delights for winter meals when stored quick-frozen in a Home Freezer. Wise food shoppers say—a Home Freezer pays for itself with food bargains bought and stored away.

It's a tough and rugged battle against winter's fury to keep your lights bright these days. More than 1000 men work early and late in sub-freezing weather to keep water flowing and to repair the storm-damaged lines.

DALYCITY—COLMA

Assemblyman Dick Dolwig was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Lions Club Wednesday.

He was introduced by Arnold Panella, and the topic of his speech was "The Southern Crossing."

It will come as no surprise to local residents that over the past months Dolwig has been plugging for an additional bridge to connect San Mateo county with Alameda county across San Francisco bay.

He has met with constant disapproval of his plan by what he terms "interests in Oakland."

He told the Lions that there "interests" are seeking a double span for the present San Francisco Bay bridge.

"The confusion caused by the extra span would result in many people staying on the Oakland side and seeking recreation along the Alameda coast," Dolwig claimed.

He said the "interests" were seeking to develop the Alameda coast, and did not want another bridge, as it would give easy access to San Francisco.

Furthermore, he said engineers viewed his proposal of a southern crossing as most feasible. He stated the southern bridge was necessary if the future is to be considered, in that population growth will center in San Mateo county.

Burlingame Drops Indians 27-21; Jefferson 30s Drubbed 56-24

By Milton Tromborg

The Jefferson High varsity went down to defeat for the third time in the P.A.L. by the hands of the Burlingame Panthers, at Burlingame, last Friday night, 27 to 21.

The main fault in the Indians' attack was in failing to shoot at the hoop.

Both teams opened up with a zone defense, but late in the second quarter Burlingame came out in a man-to-man defense. As in all other games, the Indians could not penetrate this defense.

It was 50-50 on rebounding, but the Indians shined a little more. Jack Allain, the six-foot-eight center for the Indians, sparked on rebound work. Jack only ran up 6 points, but his help came in his ability to jump and rebound the ball.

Les Nicolini played a wonderful game on the backboards, while he took high scoring honors with Jack Allain.

Harold Mosman had a poor night and was not able to rack up any points.

Bob Varni, a replacement for injured Mark Lowery, played a wonderful defensive game. Mark Lowery was hurt in a practice game with Lincoln High of San Francisco. We are not sure yet, but he might be out for the rest of the season.

JEFF 30s NO MATCH FOR BURLINGAME

Again the Jeff 30s went down in defeat. This makes the fourth defeat in the P.A.L. for the boys.

Though the score looks impressive, don't let it fool you, for the Indians put up a great fight during the game.

It was a man-to-man defense that beat the Indians plus a little forward named Wycoff who scored 21 points.

Charles and Becker sparked the Indians with 6 points each. Coach Joe McGrath started a new lineup, trying to find the right combination. The starting lineup was: Charles and Cady at guard. Thomson and Hoyes at forward, and Williams at center.

Millbrae Man To Head Census

Roderick J. O'Meara, Millbrae, was appointed this week as assistant district supervisor of census in the Eighth congressional district.

O'Meara, in accepting this appointment, called on all residents of his district to cooperate in the census, which begins here April 1.

"The individual in disclosing the information required to complete the seventeenth decennial census is asked to cooperate on a national scale. Every community wants to put its best foot forward in competition with its neighbors and other areas throughout the country," O'Meara said.

The supervisor stressed that the enumerator who contacts individuals is compiling a record and is "no sleuth."

"He wishes to compile a record of the community as it compares with the nation as a whole," O'Meara noted.

Meanwhile, those interested in taking jobs with the census bureau are asked to contact Paul D. Bean, superintendent, 444 South Market, San Jose.

Workers will be employed for approximaely three weeks and should earn between $8 and $10 a day, a census official said.

Blaze Busters Handle All Emergencies

Rumblings and flames from the deep shot up at 1:43 p.m. Tuesday from the intersection of Templeton and Mission.

Wondering whether to call a parson or the fire department, an unidentified passerby settled on the blaze busters.

Arriving at the scene of the flames, the ladder laddies had no difficulty in putting out a fire, not of Lucifer's making, but resulting from some spilt wax on a manhole cover. Damage was nil, reports indicate.

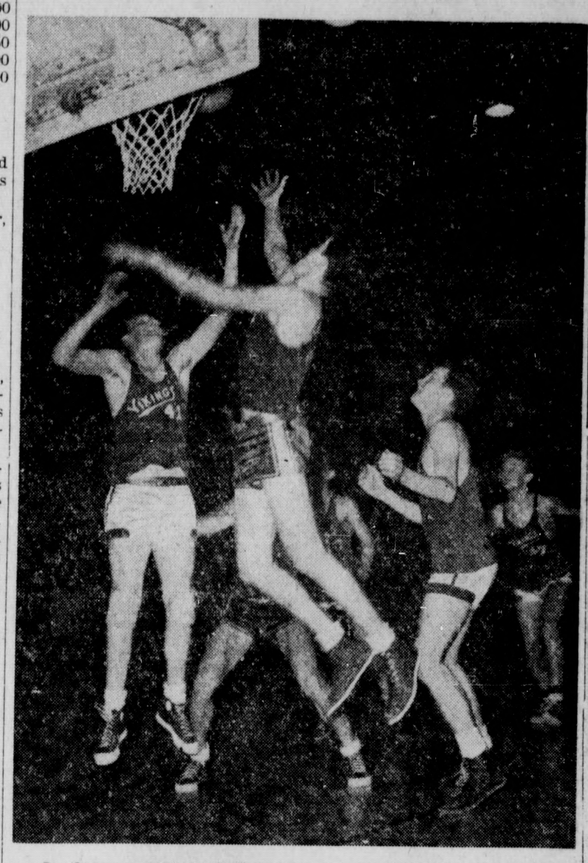
VIKINGS AND INDIANS CLASH AT BASKET



In the recent basketball game between Palo Alto and the Jefferson Indians this was one of the shots that made the game a real thriller. However, it ended up a flop for the Indians, as in overtime the Vikings ran up five points for a 34 to 29 victory. Left to right are: Bill Sonnichsen, No. 41, Vikings; Jack Allain, leaping Jeff center; John Height, Palo Alto guard; Jerry Pitsker, No. 47, Viking forward. There, but barely seen, are Bob Pederson, No. 46, Palo Alto forward and Les Nicolini, Jeff cager. (Photo by Robert Richards)

Jeff "A" and "B" Down Woodrow Wilson Teams

By Erle Johnson

Making it three in a row, Jefferson "A" and "B" teams downed the Woodrow Wilson quintets in the Junior Basketball league Friday night.

The "A" game was won by a failure to appear on the part of Woodrow Wilson. The forfeit came as a misunderstanding due to the recent consolidations of Crocker and Woodrow Wilson. However, teams will continue to play as usual.

OLPH "A" team defeated Crocker in a fast game 24-15. Robinson was high point man with 14 points for the winners and Plunkett made six points to take the honors for the losers.

In the preliminary games Jefferson Bs downed Woodrow Wilson Bs 26-2 with Al Lagomarsino making 10 points for Jeff and Cryer making two free throws for Woodrow Wilson. In the other games OLPH could not match their keen playing of the past football season and lost their third game, this time to Crocker 12-4. Costello rang up six points for the winners for top honors.

This week at Jefferson High school gymnasium the league will continue with the "B" teams playing at 7:15 and the "A" teams starting at 8. Jefferson plays Crocker and OLPH plays Woodrow Wilson. The game of the night should be between Jefferson and Crocker "B" teams. Costello and Lagomarsino will be having an individual scoring duel with each trying for the honor of top man in the "B" league. To date Lagomarsino of Jefferson has made 28 points and Costello of Crocker has made 23 points.

Hugh H. Smith Jr. May Run For Seat On City Council

Hugh H. Smith Jr., manager of the Mission Auto Court, announced today he probably will be a candidate for city councilman in the April 11 elections.

He said he would first survey "the situation" to determine whether or not he should run, and if it was favorable he would file for election before the March 2 deadline.

A resident of Daly City all his life, Smith was a councilman from 1942 to 1946. He took a one-year leave of absence in 1944, when he was sent overseas with the army.

Returning in 1945, Smith declined to run for re-election in the 1946 campaign.

Smith is the son of H. H. Smith, who was mayor of Daly City from 1919 to 1936. The senior Smith also was chairman of the county board of supervisors from 1936 to 1940.

Residing at 151 Irvington, Smith Jr. is the father of two daughters, Laurie and Janice.

In an open letter announcing his candidacy, Smith Jr. stated why he probably will run for the council:

"When I was elected to the city council in 1942, there was a surplus of $17,000 in the treasury with a $1.09 tax rate.

"This tax rate was maintained and when I retired at the end of my term in 1946, there was a $144,000 surplus and the total cost of government was $193,000.

"The 1949-50 cost of government was budgeted at $445,000, an increase of 129 per cent in four years and the present council has expended approximately $300,000 of this in the six months period up to January 1, 1950.

"Although I have taken out my papers, I do not intend to file my candidacy until I determine in my own mind if the majority of voters of Daly City desire a clean city with an economical businesslike administration and will support a three man ticket at the coming April election dedicated to the accomplishment of this worthy objective."

Signed,

HUGH H. SMITH JR.

Police Raid Local Creamery Looking For Marijuana

In a surprise raid on a local creamery Saturday night, Daly City police and state narcotic agents found indications that local youths were smoking marijuana cigarettes there.

Although 75 youths were sent home, only two were held in custody. A 15-year-old San Francisco girl was under questioning concerning purchase of the "loaded" cigarettes.

Frank Lopez, 20, 17 Theta, was awaiting trial today for failure to register for the draft. He was also cited for vagrancy by local police.

The raid was prompted by complaints of the management that youngsters had been passing the cigarettes in the establishment, Chief W. W. Sunderland said.

At week's end there was no report whether or not this had been definitely established, Sunderland noted. However, the state narcotic agents, who branded the location as "potential hot spot" were questioning the girl as to who allegedly was selling the marijuana.

While no cigarettes were found at the time of the raid, the agents reported that they had smelled the tell-tale acrid marijuana odor in the woman's rest room.

Also Sgt. Roland Petrocchi reported that over the past few nights he had seen several youths who had been drinking leave the establishment. Chief Sunderland said he believed these youngsters had their older friends purchase the liquor, then drank it in the creamery.

Most of the youths questioned during the raid were from San Francisco, and between 14 and 21 years old, Sunderland said.

"With the Bay city police cracking down on juveniles, we are bound to have an influx of them into Daly City," Sunderland noted. "However, we are doing everything in our power to check any wave of juvenile delinquency here."

The chief said that to date no outstanding cases of delinquency had come to his attention.

Booked "en route to the United States marshal," Lopez was recently released from a 30-day sentence in the county jail as a result of an alleged attack made by him on five friends and two other youth in a Daly City restaurant in December.

D. C. Youths Mark Boy Scout Week Ceremonies

Marking Boy Scout Week, local scouts are now showing their handiwork in the windows of a business house at 6748 Mission street.

From February 6 through Sunday, February 12, Boy Scouts throughout the nation will celebrate their fortieth anniversary.

The windows on Mission street show the work of Daly City Cub Pack No. 135. Various types of handicraft are on display.

The window and the work was made possible by the cubs, Ben C. Trotter, assistant cubmaster and the following cub den mothers, Mesdames Ben Trotter, Sylvia Ziegler, Doris Wells, Mae Carter and Woodbury.

There are several Cub packs and Boy Scout troops in Daly City including: Cub Pack No. 62, Cub Pack No. 135, Scout Troop No. 106, Scout Troop No. 135, Sea Scout Ship No. 144.

To these, and all scouts in the nation, this paper extends congratulations upon a job well done.

At 10 a.m. this Saturday, all scouts and scouters of the central district will gather at San Mateo city hall to participate in the "Report to the County" and enjoy a movie following the ceremonies.

During Boy Scout Week, parents of scouts and friends are invited to attend the various meetings.

Gets In Wrong Car, Ends Up In Jail

Now serving 30 days in the San Mateo county jail, is Georold M. Perkins, 19, 3375 26th street, San Francisco, after he pleaded guilty to tampering with an automobile.

Monday, Perkins was found trying to start a car belonging to George Davis, 9404 Empire road, Oakland. The car was parked in front of 6630 Mission, and it was Davis who spoted Perkins behind the wheel of his car.

Grabbing Perkins, Davis had a passerby call the police.

Judge W. J. Sweeney sentenced the San Francisco youth in police court Tuesday.

Police reports indicate that Perkins was on parole from Preston, where he was sent last year for an auto theft in San Francisco.

Thornton Beach Talk This Friday

Discussing the possibilities of Daly City obtaining the 26-acre Thornton beach near Skyline boulevard, local, county and state officials will meet Friday.

The meeting is to be held in Half Moon Bay. Expected to represent Daly City will be A. J. Bodien, works superintendent and member of the county planning board, and Mayor Paul Green.

At present, the city is attempting to acquire the park, located just west of Westlake, to give local residents a public beach on the ocean. As the county is in possession of title to the land, it will be necessary to go through the legal steps of transferring title to the state, and the state in turn leasing the beach to Daly City.

Members of the county board of supervisors, county planning commission, and the aforesaid city officials will attend the meeting. Representing the state will be Geoffrey Morgan, president of the shoreline planning association of California.

Not only will Thornton beach be discussed, but Bodien indicated other beach lands in San Mateo county would come under the scrutiny of the officials.

Callan To Build $33,000 Apartment

With an apartment house almost completed on School street, Thomas Callan Jr. this week received a building permit from the city to put up two more apartment buildings on First avenue.

The two buildings each will house four apartments. The structures are to be put up at a total cost of $33,000, permits indicate.

Other building permits issued last week went to:

Mr. and Mrs. S. Ross, for a $9,250 home on E. Moltke street.

Sundell and Nelson for a $7,000 home at 777 Bellevue avenue.

Adams for a $1,200 retaining wall at 131 Alexander avenue.

Bank of America in Daly City for a $75 neon sign.

Timosi Motors for $500 zeon tubing at 6894 Mission street.

D. C. Man Says $80 Taken By A Punch

Following an evening in a Daly City tavern, Ray Welsh, 553 Hanover street, reported to police that two young men robbed him of $80.

Welsh told officers that he had come out of the tavern when he noticed two unidentified men, between 20 and 25 years old near Templeton and Hanover.

Becoming alarmed, Welsh ran up the street, he told police. The two young men followed him, and at the corner of Hanover and Oliver one of them drove a punch to his head, Welsh said. When he recovered from the blow, he'd lost his wallet with $80, Welsh reported.

The last time the Daly City man saw his assailants was when they were running down Mission street, Welsh noted.

Coast Road Work Begins This Week

Work started this week on the new one-mile $82,000 link of the coast highway from Miramar to a point south of Frenchman's creek.

The new road section is designed to eliminate the county's most hazardous blind curve and narrow bridge. Work will be under the direction of Eugene G. Alves of Pittsburgh.

Work will involve locating the road slightly east of the present pavement, and moving four houses and other buildings in the area.

Also planned for the coast road this year is $304,000 grading and surfacing of 1½ miles across Lobitos canyon, south of Half Moon Bay.

The New York Fashion Academy Gold Medal Award for the Fashion Car of the Year

WHAT sterling is to silver, the Fashion Academy of New York is to the world of fashion—the last word! And again for 1950, as for 1949, it has selected the Ford Car to receive its distinguished gold medal award as "Fashion Car of the Year." There is, we believe, no greater proof of the beauty of the '50 Ford. And there's no greater proof of its fine performance than a 10-minute "test drive." Your Ford Dealer will be glad to arrange it.

Hop On The Fire Wagon; Join D. C. Blaze Busters

When you were a kid, did you ever want to hop on the red wagon and rip down the street to put out a fire?

Well, here's a chance to have a dream come true. This week, through February 25, the Daly City Fire department is accepting applications for firemen. Application can be made in the City Clerk's office, city hall.

Only requirements for the part-time work is that a man be between the ages of 21 and 35 years, and a resident of Daly City for one year.

No previous fire-fighting experience is necessary.

Upon appointment to the department, men are required to attend meetings, drills and, of course, fight fires.

Compensation for the work is based on the number of drills and fires attended, Chief Kennedy said. Men are paid every three months, and it is possible to earn $100 for the three-month period, Chief Kennedy noted.

Each applicant is given a test (time to be announced later), and upon successful completion of the examination is placed on the employment list. Position on the list is determined by the passing grade and in what district the applicant resides.

As new firemen are needed they are taken from the list, and whenever possible assigned to stations closest to their homes.

"Fire service work is educational, interesting, remunerative and offers comradeship of the finest type," Chief Kennedy said.

Closing date for filing applications is February 25 at noon.

Write A Limerick; Wash Your Hair Free With PIP

But one more week remains for you readers to slide under the line and into a two-month supply of PiP shampoo, or even a year's supply.

Merely write a limerick for the "Korny Kopy" contest and you may be one of the five lucky winners of a two-month supply of PiP.

Next week, judges will look over all the past entries and choose five of the best. These, in turn will be awarded enough PiP shampoo to wash their hair for one year.

And it's not too late for you to be one of the big winners.

For example here is one of last week's five prize winning limericks:

Midas had the golden touch,
Cinderella had the shoe,
But you can have more luck
than this
If you use
It's a PiP of a Shampoo

That winner was written by Margaret M. Kostouros, 120 Sickles avenue, San Francisco.

See how simple it is? Merely write four or five lines, incorporating that last punch line with PiP shampoo to draw your limerick to a conclusion.

Send all entries to the Daly City Record, 3317 San Jose avenue, Daly City.

Anyone in the greater Daly City area is eligible to enter. There is nothing to send in but the limerick.

Also, remember that every entry is given a free sample of the shampoo. Hence, there are no losers in this contest, only winners.

Prize takers last week include: Carmella Guaraldi, 6331 Mission street; Mrs. Florence Carbone, 31 Werner avenue; Mrs. Keith Swanson, 226 Hillside boulevard; Mrs. R. Lowry, 40 W. Cavour street.

Jeff High Band In Review April 1

The Jefferson High school band will have an opportunity to do some real tooting come April 1. For that is the date set for the First Annual Northern California Championship Band Review, to be held on the San Francisco peninsula in Redwood City.

The sponsors, the Redwood City Kiwanis Club, anticipate the participation of many youthful musicians, representing 75 different areas in northern California. They will meet in Redwood City and provide the most colorful and spectacular outdoor band review ever held in this area.

When the school band accepts the invitation, it will have an opportunity to strut its stuff before thousands, in addition to competing for numerous cash prizes, trophies and other awards.

The program will begin with a two-mile-long parade, with all the color and pomp usually reserved for Hollywood, followed by a three-hour program of the bands competing in the finals, interspersed with some plain and fancy baton twirling, fancy maneuvers, plus a few outstanding solo numbers. The program will be held in the Sequoia High School bowl, under their newly installed lights.

San Francisco's Golden Gate Park, wher more than 5,000 different kinds of plants now flourish, was a wind-swept waste of shifting sand hills in 1870.

Bocci To Head SSF Red Cross Drive

Mrs. Harry Durand, chairman of the Fund Raising committee for the San Mateo county chapter, American Red Cross, announced today Thomas Bocci has accepted the post as over-all chairman for South San Francisco, including industrial, business and residential, with a quota of $10,000 for the 1950 drive which starts February 24.

R. L. Stevens, of the South City Lumber Company, will handle industrial contributions, and Mrs. Maurice Oliva will be in charge of residential. The committee in Bayshore, whose quota is $500, is headed by Mrs. Berta Hughes; in Brisbane, Arthur Kennedy is chairman with a quota of $300 to raise, and in Colma, chairman and co-chairman are Mrs. Margaret Pauline Brown and George Irvine. The quota here is $1,600.

Daly City, with a quota of $2,000, has Joseph Lewkowitz as chairman. He will be in charge of business while Mrs. Floyd S. Harris will serve as chairman of residential.

The City of San Francisco occupies the entire 42 square miles of San Francisco county.

One More Wreck At J. S. And No. 1

Scene of still another accident this week end was the intersection of Junipero Serra and Highway No. 1.

Two cars sustained minor damage when they collided at the intersection at 10:30 p.m. Saturday night, police report. Driving the machines were: Donald Hoy, 26, 2282 25th street, San Francisco, and Richard C. Plowman, 42, 293 Flournoy street, San Francisco.

Only one other accident was reported over the week end. That was at the intersection of 87th and Sullivan in Broadmoor Village. Both cars sustained minor damages, police said. The accident occurred at 5 p.m. Sunday.

Behind the driver's wheel of the two vehicles were: Frank V. Malcewitz, 45, 26 Garden lane, and Rudolph G. Richardson, 32, 6925 Mission street.

As Goes Population So Goes Paper Work

As San Mateo county's population grows, so does the paper work.

Last month the County Recorder's office handled 5,855 papers as compared with 4,641 for January, 1949. However, there is one compensation for additional work. Fees last month stood at $16,318, as compared with $12,337 for one year ago.

Marriages remained fairly stable over the year, however, with 119 reported for January, 1950, as compared with 101 for the same month in 1949.

This report came today from the office of Ruth Kirste, county recorder of San Mateo county.

Footnote On A Columnist

By Ridgely Cummings

Six facile little lines in a paper can carry a lot of significance to a number of quite ordinary people. The responsibilities that weigh, or should weigh, on a columnist were brought home to me the other night by an incident that I'd like to relate.

I was in an unpretentious restaurant called Original Junior's on Broadway near Kearney, sitting in a booth eating and minding my own business, when I heard a series of joyous exclamations. Looking up, I saw two blondes, a brunette and two men at the counter all huddled around an open newspaper.

One of the men, a dark-haired, serious youth, kept asking rhetorically: "Isn't it wonderful?" The others were bent over the paper, reading and re-reading the item and chorusing assent and approbation.

I strained my eyes and saw they were reading the second section of the S.F. Chronicle. Whatever it was that pleased them must be printed above the fold, I noted from the way they held the sheet.

Puzzle to Solve

Through the rest of my meal I speculated idly on what it could have been that provoked the emotional display. I knew that the front page of the second section of that particular newspaper is usually devoted to Herb Caen's column, various light feature stories and a City of Paris ad.

The five people had a vaguely show-folk air and I thought they might belong to a Little Theatre group.

One of the blonde girls had long eye-lashes and was wearing a brown suede coat that enhanced a trim figure. The other had hair of a light gold color, shoulder length and carefully coiffeured but she was more bulky. The brunette had short hair, an unsmiling face that belonged more likely to an office-worker than an actress, and was wearing a green raincoat.

One of the men I've described and the other had delicate features, wavy hair and before I finished eating and left the place he was talking about operas with the good-looking blonde, occasionally dropping from English into French and German.

I was intrigued. Having nothing beter to do, I bought a Chronicle at the corner and walked a block to the Vesuvio, a Bohemian rendezvous where one can sit at a table and read in peace when so inclined. Henri Lenoir, the proprietor of the place and a North Beach intellectual who is rapidly becoming a San Francisco tradition of the same order as the late Izzy Gomez, came over to greet me and discover the reason for my intent concentration on one page of the paper.

Help in Solution

I told Henri what I was looking for and together we searched the paper until we decided, by process of elimination, that we had found the item in question. It was in Brother Caen's allotted area and read as follows:

"If you've wondered what Beatrice Lillie did with her spare time during the S.F. run of "Inside U.S.A."—well, she spent a lot of it in a B'way jernt called the Drift Inn, where she yakked considerably over the comedy antics of a team with the unlikely name of Doodles and Spider. I've never seen them myself but if they're good enough for La Lillie, etc. . ." End of item.

The clincher in our deductions came when Henri told me the Drift Inn was right next door to the restaurant where I had seen the quintet. So we decided to walk a block and see the show ourselves.

Henri is quite a celebrity in that part of town so we were shown to a table with considerable eclat and fanfare. When the waitress came to take our order I recognized her as the same one who had been wearing the suede coat in Original Junior's. Now she had on a leopard skin vest that did her justice.

One thing led to another and I am now able to provide a footnote to Mr. Caen's squib.

Facts & Addenda

Doodles' given name turned out to be Danny Young; he was the youth who was so visibly pleased earlier in the evening. Spider is known to his friends as Willis Clark. One of the blondes was Mrs. Clark, a radio writer; and the other, the one now wearing a leopard skin, was Mrs. Trudi Gifford, who a few years ago was a war-bride in Heidelberg.

Being from Europe, Trudi was quite a linquist and the youth she had been talking to in various tongues was a music student who had left to attend a concert.

I never did find out anything about the pessimistic-appearing, black-haired girl in the green raincoat. As a matter of fact I forgot to ask.

But the proprietor of the place, Mrs. Florence Rose, known to her friends as "Fleur," gave me the background on Doodles and Spider. Seems she had discovered them in an Embarcadero establishment and lured them to Broadway, with benefits for all concerned.

Almost everyone I talked to in the place that night asked me if I had read Caen's column. That six-line item made a number of people happy.

So you can see the consequences of being a scribbler, responsibilities so heavy that I almost hesitate to note that I do not see one hundred per cent eye to eye with the tastes of the estimable Miss Beatrice Lillie.

RED DEMONSTRATOR ARRESTED—Motorized riot police in Rome arrest a Communist demonstrator in the downtown section after Reds tried to march through the city in an unauthorized procession. Police took in several agitators as 50,000 gathered to hear leftist speakers at a rally in the Piazza Del Popolo.

HAVE CHECKUP MADE

If you haven't already done so, have the safety features of your car checked — brakes, tires, lights, windshield wipers, and horn — to make sure they are in good operating condition, urges the California State Automobile Association. For winter driving, it is particularly important that these safety units operate at peak efficiency.

SMOOTH TIRES SKID

Skidding on wet or slippery pavements often results when automobile tires are worn down to a smooth surface, warns the California State Automobile Association. Smooth tires should be retreaded or replaced for winter driving.

Bunker Takes Over Red Cross Duties

Homer W. Bunker, newly appointed chairman of Home Service for the San Mateo County Chapter, American Red Cross, has just taken over duties of his office.

Bunker, a long-time resident of Hillsborough and a San Francisco industrial consultant, who was a lieutenant colonel of engineers in World War II, has served some time on the Home Service committee and is thoroughly familiar with the department.

He said today:

"Home Service is the 'case work' agency of the Red Cross, cooperating with other agencies in the community. I feel that the public should be more aware of the tremendous job being done by our department in this county. The case load is very heavy (4242 cases were handled last year) because of the many military installations and military housing projects in the area."

These families live wherever they can find housing.

Consultation Service and financial assistance to all these men and their dependents in cooperation with the Red Cross field directors on the bases is one of the Red Cross charter obligations to the United States government. Civilians who are not eligible for aid from other agencies, also come to Home Service for consultation regarding family problems.

Surveyors Launch $52,000 Traffic Control Program

Painting strange signs on Daly City sidewalks and streets, surveyors this week launched a $52,000 traffic control program.

As announced earlier in the "Record," by the summer of this year the state will have put in traffic islands and signals at the intersections of San Jose avenue, Hillcrest drive, Wellington avenue and Mission, and the intersection of Market, San Pedro road and Mission.

Also promised are traffic signals for the intersection of Junipero Serra boulevard and Highway No. 1.

When questioned, the surveyors stated that now they were only making preliminary plans for the traffic system.

Those odd signs, painted in white, are to determine where gas lines are and where the traffic signals will be spotted. Of course, they have other technical meanings, but this is a newspaper, not a surveyor's handbook.

Meanwhile, Mayor Green announced today that the state has notified him plans and specifications are ready for the project.

However, before bids can be called, it will be necessary for the San Francisco municipal railroad to remove streetcar tracks where traffic islands are to be installed. Mayor Green said he had already received verbal assurance from San Francisco that this would be done.

LOOK SHARP

Combine foresight and hindsight in your driving, urges the California State Automobile Association. As you drive, keep a sharp lookout ahead. When you are backing or moving out of a parked position, look behind to make sure that the way is clear.

FAILURE TO START

Loose or corroded battery terminals and pitted ignition points are two of the most frequent causes of an automobile engine failing to start, says the California State Automobile Association. Unnecessary delay may be avoided by having these units checked occasionally.

Free State Income Tax Advice Here February 7 to 28

An estimated 600,000 new taxpayers will be required to file State income tax returns in 1950 due to decreased allowable exemptions, George R. Reilly, member of the Franchise Tax Board, reported today.

The decrease of allowable exemptions effective this year may mean an increase in tax to all individuals filing income tax returns, Reilly said.

Allowable personal exemptions are $2,000 for a single person and $3,500 for a married couple or head of a family. Returns must be filed by a single person or head of a family having a net income of $2,000 or more, or by married persons having an aggregate net income of $3,500 or more.

Carrying out the policy of assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their reports, plans have been made for representatives of the Franchise Tax Board to set up temporary headquarters in the various communities. Reilly said that important differences exist between the Federal and State income tax laws, and urged all taxpayers to take advantage of the assistance offered by the Board.

No charge is made for this service.

Representatives will be available at city hall, Daly City on February 27 and 28.

Meanwhile, a specially trained agent of the Treasury department, J. J. Profumo, will be in Daly City and Colma later this month to give out free advice on federal income tax problems.

Profumo will be at the Colma branch of Bank of America February 15 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

He will return, at the same hours, to the Daly City branch of Bank of America February 20 and 21.

Remember, whether your income tax is in the small or large brackets, this special agent will be here to help you. His advice is free of cost.

Possible Sheriff Candidate Speaks

Proctor Jones, possible candidate for Sheriff, spoke this week to the Pillar Point Improvement Association, at Half Moon Bay.

Jones spoke on the subject of the "Unfaithful Public Servant." Stressing the point that responsibility for good government lies with the citizen, he pointed out local government was the foundation on which the American way is based.

He said that if we expected our representative form to make progress and beat back the totalitarian advances which are evident in Europe and Asia today the electorate will have to place in public office officials who can competently and honestly administer the government.

He traced the growth of San Mateo county through the last 20 years feeling that today the county was at the threshhold of becoming a really large suburban community.

The growth of the county in the next ten years will be critical he said, "We have the opportunity of developing an orderly growth. If we fail to take advantage of it through intelligent and sound county administration, in all offices, we will wake up to find that a very bad element has taken advantage and what was once a beautiful and wholesome place to raise a family has become an eyesore and a pesthole of vice and crime."

Former D. C. Man Fined $150

Found guilty of accepting an unemployment check while working, Carl E. Hughes, 40, formerly of 230 Los Olivos, was fined $150 and given a 90-day suspended sentence, Friday.

Judge S. K. Robbins, in the South San Francisco municipal court, handed down the fine and sentence. He also put Hughes, now of Rockaway Beach, on one year probation.

N. H. Pederson, manager of the South City Department of Employment, said there were several other cases now pending on fraudulent unemployment claims.

By treaty with Mexico, the United States paid approximately four cents per acre for the territory now known as California.

Navy Wants High School Grads

The Navy assures qualified high school graduates of a course in one of its many vocational schools upon collection of their basic recruit training.

In addition to basic submarine and airman schools there are over 30 other schools available.

The electronics field is one which offers superior technical training, and is one in which you can carve a successful and profitable career, whether you remain in the Navy or return to civil life.

If you are interested in electronics, you should contact the nearest Navy recruiting station and request a copy of the illustrated pamphlet titled "The Navy Offers You a Rich Future in Electronics."

You will be interested, also, to learn that more than 40 per cent of the officers serving in the Navy today are former enlisted men. This means that there are real opportunities for advancement through the enlisted channels.

Complete information about the Regular Navy and the Naval Reserve can be obtained from the Navy Recruiting Station, San Mateo Post Office building, San Mateo, California.

"WEST'S MOST WESTERN TOWN"

Arizona's quaint little town of Scottsdale, located only a short distance northeast of Phoenix, is determined to remain the "west's most western town." Property owners in the little town, reports the National Automobile Club, are being asked to keep their buildings dressed in false fronts, board awnings, porches, and all the other trimmings of the old west. And residents and visitors are being encouraged to travel about the town on horseback whenever that is possible.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

CROCKER

The following pupils in the high fifth had perfect attendance last month: Robert Brugioni, Angelo Casserino, Wayne Dunham, Neta Emerson, George Fresenborg, Gary Gardner, Jack Klingler, Gerald Lunghi, William Magee, Clinton Thistle, Leonard Thistle, Henry Oliver, and Willis Walton.

With the end of the first semester, sixteen fifth grade pupils will have their names on the honor roll. A circulating library will be established with a wide selection of story books available.

The children of the sixth grade went on a wonderful field trip last week to the Aquarium, the North American Hall, and the African Hall. The trip was correlated to their science studies. The children enjoyed the wide variety of fish of every color in the rainbow, the redwood tree that had begun its growth before the birth of Christ and the stones and minerals from Brazil and Chile. Returning to Crocker, the students felt that they had traveled thousands of miles. They had gotten a powerful impetus for an investigation into the musteries of nature.

At this time of the year, the students of Room 5 are reviewing the many things studied during the first term before beginning their new work.

Before the students of the sixth grade begin the study of the Pacific, they will review the climatic zones and study the influence of hot climate on man's progress. In health the students have begun the study of water and its uses. The boys and girls were surprised to learn that about three-fifths of the weight of the human body is water.

SEVENTH GRADE

In social studies the students of the seventh grade are beginning a study of Great Britain. Since many of the pupils' ancestors are from the British Isles, it should prove an interesting unit to the group.

The seventh grade class has begun the study of "Life in Europe—Past and Present," and they will integrate their art periods with this social study unit. Luis Colorado from Central America is a new member of the seventh grade. All the students have shown a willingness to help their Latin-American classmate in all subjects and extra-curricular activities.

ROOM 6

Forty-five pupils are enrolled in the high eighth in Room 6. Our first lesson in language will be simple diagramming. In history we will briefly review the exploration and colonial period before starting on the later history of the United States. In art, lettering is being done in preparation for the work on posters for the American Legion contest.

Crocker's honor roll for the second report card period is very weighty. Following are the students from Room 1 — 8th grade whose names appear: Dixie Bender, Carol Bertelli, Beverly Broadbent, Gary Carlson, Joyce Courts, Bob Church, Rita DeLeon, Jane Dixon, Gerry Giomi, Barbara Hoerner, Mary Jones, Dick Kalinin, Jane Kennedy, Neil Lundy, Beverly Meehan, George Miller, Alberta Monahan, Jacquelyn Mullen, Alice Quickert, Margaret Robertson, Mary Jane Schuler, Bob Sims, Jacquelyn Streiff, Roberta Taylor, Neil Thistle, Martin Van Gundy, Wauneta Viele;

FHA Yardstick For State Vet Home Loans

There are two reasons why the State Department of Veterans Affairs uses certain Federal Housing Administration standards as a yardstick in its low-interest financing of homes for California veterans, according to Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer.

"For one thing," Granger said, "the FHA construction and other requirements are well known and generall accepted as providing a prudent basis for long-term residential loans. For another, there is the very practical matter of marketability in case the veteran has to dispose of the property for any reason."

Granger reported that some veterans had complained to him that homes they wanted to buy under the advantageous terms of the State Farm and Home Purchase Plan could not qualify for the amount of State financing they needed.

"There is usually a valid reason behind the judgment of the Department of Veterans Affairs as to the amount it is willing to advance on a piece of property," he said. "The program has been operating since 1921, and operating on a very sound basis. In fact, it is only because it is on such a sound basis that the eligible veteran can obtain financing at such a low rate as the current 3 per cent."

The Department of Veterans Affairs can advance up to $7,500 on the purchase of a home to a qualified veteran who was born in or entered military service from California. Application forms, booklets and information are available at the Veterans Service Office, located in the Courthouse, Redwood City.

SAFE PASSING

The wise motorist never passes another vehicle when approaching an intersection, a curve, or the crest of a hill, points out the Public Safety Department of the National Automobile Club. He passes only when the road is straight and open, for he knows that is the way to keep himself safe.

Robbery Results In Tummy Aches

If not suffering pangs of conscience today, the young juveniles who broke into the Jefferson High cafeteria Monday evening must be having stiff belly aches.

Police report the unidentified juveniles pried open the door on the candy cabinet in the cafeteria. They then proceeded to fill both their mouths and pockets with sweet stuffs.

Turning to the ice cream department, they did some $10 worth of damage forcing the lids off freezers to gouge out large quantities of ice cream.

Topping off the whole feast, the hungry thieves downed several bags of peanuts.

Entry was gained to the cafeteria by breaking out a pane of glass in the southwest door of the establishment, police said. Officers place the time of the burglary from 1 p.m. Monday to 7:30 a.m. Tuesday.

TEST YOUR I. Q.

65 Or Over? File For Benefits

Anyone age 65 or over who has retired after the first of the year from work covered by social security should file a application for benefits.

Claims should be filed promptly so payment may start as soon as possible, according to the San Mateo office of the Social Security Administration. Applications may be handled by mail but it is better if filed directly in the office so that no unnecessary delay occurs. However, if illness requires, the office can arrange a home visit to take the application.

The office is located at 42 North B street, San Mateo, and is open from 9 to 5 Monday through Friday.

SMJC Spring Semester Opens

The spring semester opened at San Mateo Junior College this week, with registration Monday and Tuesday and actual class work getting started Wednesday.

Late registrants will still be accepted at the registrar's office on the Coyote Point campus.

Student events starting off the new term include a Howdy Doody Hop in the Baldwin Avenue gym this Friday evening following the San Mateo - Modesto basketball game. The dance is to help new and old students get acquainted, while the game is a league contest.

Saturday evening the Mateans will host the Stockton College basketball squad in another league game. The Mateans hold one win over the Stockton Mustangs, a one-point victory gained in the Stockton gym. Both games this week end will start at eight o'clock.

February 16 the Associated Women Students will welcome new girls to the college with a luncheon at the Commander's house on Coyote Point.

Meanwhile, as basketball reaches the final half of its schedule, coaches have issued a call for trackmen, baseball players, and tennis men to report for spring training that will lead to the conference games and matches in March, April and May.

There will be no Community Hall program at the junior college Monday evening because of the school holiday, but a week later, February 20, a color film and lecture on a trip through Europe will be offered to the public free of charge.

MOVING OUT FROM THE CURB

When motorists move out from the curb, they should move out with caution. They are advised by the National Automobile Club to wait for an opening in the stream of traffic and to signal their intention clearly. This is the course of courtesy and of common sense.

PREPARE FOR IVORY AUCTION—Workers handle elephant tusks as they sort them for the forthcoming auction to be held on the "Ivory Floor" at St. Catherine Docks in London. Piled up on the floor are some 13 tons of ivory—the product of a thousand elephants. Much of the ivory, of which America is a big buyer, goes into the making of piano keys.

DEMONSTRATIONS DIFFER

What does one want proved about the car he is considering buying? Probably several things—speed, power, silence of operation, flexibility, riding comfort, adequate room, and the like. The thorough-going motor car buyer, according to the National Automobile Club, will ask himself the question in advance of the demonstration and, knowing his city, map out a route that will give the car a chance to prove its several virtues. Demonstrations differ, but only when the car owner lets the salesman know precisely what he desires to learn about the car.

Your Income Tax Return Problems

This is the second in a series of articles, prepared by Collector of Internal Revenue James G. Smyth of the First California District, outlining rules and regulations to be followed in filing Federal Income Tax Returns.

Persons filing federal income tax returns showing a refund should not be uneasy if the refund checks are not received as early as anticipated. These checks cannot be mailed immediately after the returns are received. The returns must be checked, varified and recorded before the Collector can return the over-tax payment.

If a refund is due where a joint return was filed, the check will be made payable to both husband and wife.

When the tax liability on the Form 1040A has been computed by the Collector, and additional tax is due, the taxpayer is mailed a statement which must be paid within thirty days.

On the Form 1040A the tax is computed by means of a tax table automatically allowing the "Standard Deduction" which is equal to about ten per cent of adjusted gross income. A wage earner filing on the Form 1040A would receive the benefits of the ten per cent deduction even though it is larger than his actual deductions.

This takes the place of non-business deductions which the taxpayer could claim for himself on a long Form 1040. A personal exemption of $600 is given each individual listed on the return.

An additional exemption of $600 may be claimed if the taxpayer or spouse is 65 years of age or over, or is blind. Only one personal exemption is allowed for each dependent regardless of age.

In community property states married couples cannot file separate returns on the Form 1040A. If separate returns are filed, both husband and wife are required to use the same type of return. They must file and use the Form 1040, either as a short or long form return.

The Form 1040 must be used by taxpayers receiving:

1. More than one hundred dollars of taxable income not subject to withholding tax;
2. Where any of such outside income is from annuities, rents, royalties, a business or profession, farming, transactions in securities or other property, partnerships, estates and trusts;
3. Where the taxpayer wished to itemize non-business deductions;
4. If the return is made on a fiscal year basis;
5. If the return is made on a basis other than the cash basis;
6. If the taxpayer has made payments o festimated tax for the taxable year;
7. If separate returns are made by married persons in a community property state; or
8. If the aggregate income of husband and wife in a joint return equals or exceeds the $5,000 limitation.

Watch for the third article of the series prepared by Collector of Internal Revenue James G. Smyth. It will appear February 16. Clip and save these articles for future reference.
